

The Christ Experiment

OUR MISSION

The mission of The Christ Experiment is to uplift the spiritual conversation worldwide by stripping away the centuries of manmade doctrines, rituals and superstitions, and re-introducing the authentic, original, plain and open teaching of Jesus Christ. We believe the world needs to see Jesus living again on earth in this 21st century in the lives of spirit-born men and women who are seeking more than just belonging to a religion – men and women who are seeking spiritual freedom as the children of God.

We are not creating a new sect or a new religion. We present this as a service – a ministry. A sect looks for direction from a governing entity; whereas a ministry denotes service on an individual basis. A sect remonstrates; whereas a ministry demonstrates. A sect theorizes; whereas a ministry actualizes. A ministry is an impulse for organizing the soul for dynamic service. That is what we hope to accomplish.

ABOUT THE AUTHORS

We are the authors of www.AnointedJW.org and The Good News of the Kingdom for a Modern World. We have been studying the Bible, God, Jesus Christ, and religion as it relates to science, physics, philosophy, sociology and things like these for over 40 years.

We began as members of Jehovah's Witnesses but in time realized that their message was not the message Jesus taught. In fact, we discovered that most of Christianity is not teaching the message Jesus taught. So we took a dare, acting in total faith, and began a ministry to reach out to all religions, even to those without religion, to entreat them to look more closely at the original, actual, authentic, plain and open teachings of Jesus Christ. We believe the original teachings of Jesus are without regard to denomination and not the personal possession of any one particular sect. We work from our home in Southern California.

In the beginning, there were only the two of us. Recently, we took on three new partners who likewise began their spiritual journey among Jehovah's Witnesses, and who, like ourselves, have branched out in their search for truth and understanding of our universe. Their 'seeking and knocking' has created in them a desire to help others who are on a similar journey of spiritual and cosmic thought to really see what lays ahead for each and every individual who has ever, and will ever, live on this planet. They are excited about the great possibilities of betterment for all mankind, no matter who or where they live. They work with us out of their homes in Tasmania, Australia and Massachusetts USA.

And we have a commitment from our French translator who has worked with us tirelessly in translating our articles for our French-speaking audience. He, too, is dedicated to making the plain and open teachings of Jesus available to as many people as possible. We are hoping to attract other translators of all languages who can voluntarily commit to the advancement of this life changing ministry. He works with us from his home in Rennes, France.

For now, the five partners are determined to keep the focus of our ministry on the message. We have no aspirations for personal fame. For that reason, we withhold our names in the public arena so as not to distract from what is more important – the life and ministry of Jesus Christ. We promote his message, his ministry, and his religion as he lived it and as he taught others to live it.

OUR STATEMENT OF BELIEFS

ONE

God, as the First Source and Center of everything in existence, is the Father of every man; therefore all men are brothers. (Hebrew 3:4; Matthew 23:9; Matthew 11:27; John 14:7-9; 1 John 4:8; Matthew 23:8; Genesis 1:27)

TWO

The Christ, who incarnated as Jesus of Nazareth, is the begotten Son of God, the Creator of our Universe, the head of the Christian congregation, and the elder brother of all mankind. (Colossians 1:15-18; Romans 8:17)

THREE

A fragment of the Spirit of God dwells within the minds of each of us and it is the means by which we commune with the Father. (1 Corinthians 3:16-17; 1 Peter 1:23; Matthew 6:6-8; Matthew 10:29-31; Ecclesiastes 12:7)

FOUR

From the beginning, the Father purposed to adopt earthly man as His spirit sons and daughters in His heavenly kingdom after their earthly career is complete. The default of Adam and Eve did not change the Father's purpose. (Ephesians 1:3-5; 1 Corinthians 15:22; 1 Corinthians 15:45-49; Romans 8:19-23)

FIVE

The Spirit of Truth poured out by Christ stimulates the Father's indwelling Spirit and bears witness, or confirms, to us that we are children of God, and guides us individually into all truth. (Romans 8:16-17; John 16:12-13; Romans 8:14)

SIX

The Kingdom of God on earth is the spiritual brotherhood of every person who recognizes he or she is a child of God. (Luke 17:20-21; John 18:36; Colossians 1:13-14; Philippians 3:20-21)

SEVEN

The Father wants all of his children to begin the heavenly spiritual ascent toward Him after they complete their time on earth. (Matthew 6:19-21; 2 Corinthians 5:1-5; Philippians 3:14-15; Philippians 3:20-21; Colossians 1:3-6; Colossians 3:1-2; 1 Peter 1:3-5)

EIGHT

The law of the Kingdom of God is: You must love God with your whole heart, mind and strength, and your neighbor as yourself. (Matthew 22:36-40)

NINE

All who enter the brotherhood of the Kingdom of God on earth are to be ambassadors substituting for Christ with a ministry of reconciling mankind to God so they, too, can begin the heavenly ascent to the Father. (2 Corinthians 5:18-20; Matthew 28:19-20; 1 Corinthians 15:20-28; 1 Corinthians 2:9; 1 Timothy 6:17-19)

TEN

God's new everlasting covenant with man is written in the hearts and minds so that we can manifest the spirit of the law, not the letter of the law. (Hebrews 8:10; Romans 2:29; Romans 7:6)
